

Adarsh Institute of Management and Information Technology (AIMIT) is one of the premier management institutions in Bangalore. In the quest of bringing ideas for management practitioners beyond their typical boundaries and academic excellence, AIMIT has been publishing the journal - Adarsh Journal of Management Research (ISSN 0974-7028) since 2008.

This is our effort in providing a repository of knowledge and information to researchers, practitioners and academicians in the area of Business Management. AJMR is committed to make a quality contribution to the pool of existing knowledge. To ensure the same, AIMIT has adopted the following as ethical policy for publication.

Editor:

- ❖ The editor shall ensure a fair, unbiased and timely process of publication.
- ❖ The editor shall send the research articles for double blind review by external reviewers.
- ❖ Based on the reviewers' comments, and author's corrections the articles shall be selected for publication.
- ❖ The editorial expectations from the authors has been clearly mentioned in the guidelines for authors and is available on our website adarshjournals.in

Authors:

- ❖ Authorship should be restricted to those who make significant contribution to the study.
- ❖ The authors shall submit their original work and if they have referred to others' work, the same should be appropriately cited or quoted.
- ❖ The papers published in any other journal earlier shall not be considered for publication
- ❖ AVS holds the copyright for the published articles. They cannot be reproduced without prior written approval.
- ❖ If demanded by the reviewers, the authors should be prepared to produce the raw data and workbooks pertaining to their articles.
- ❖ When any author identifies any errors or mistakes in their articles, it is their obligation to notify the journal editor about the same and help the editor to rectify the error.

Reviewers:

- ❖ Any manuscript received for review must be treated as a confidential document.
- ❖ The reviewer shall bring to the notice of the editor of any potential ethical issues in the paper.
- ❖ The research articles should be reviewed objectively.
- ❖ The reviewers shall return the reviewed article within the stipulated time to facilitate timely publication of the journal.

From,

Editorial Team